Nature in Service of Beauty

TF Cream

Produced using a secret formula and unique technology, it is the fruit of decades of research and development in the field of organic cosmetics.

This is a rich face cream, formulated in the TF laboratories for different skin types:

- Normal skin
- Dry skin / Very dry skin

The cream, packaged in an elegant jar, has a rich texture and allows for a smooth application to nourish the skin.

Contains: Blended with Vitamins A & E to protect, hydrate and refresh the skin, Roman Chamomile, Blue Chamomile and Lavender oils are blended to soothe and balance facial skin.

Paraben-Free

The nourishing cream is well absorbed and leaves the facial skin breathable, without oily shine.

Suitable for day and night use.

Not suitable for use on irritated or cracked facial skin.

Please follow the guideline labels on the back of the package for maximum efficiency.

TF - the line of creams that makes the difference, and it shows

Tchiya Fidler, owner of the natural cosmetics line TF, is the woman behind the brand. For the past three decades, Tchiya Fidler has been researching the world of natural cosmetics and producing selected cosmetic products from it. The writings of Maimonides, whose research was ahead of its time by centuries in the field of health and medicinal plants, were the ones that ignited, in her youth, the desire to know the secrets of plants.

After many years of training and education in the field of natural pharmacy, Tchiya Fidler has become an expert in the treatment of all skin types. Her dedication and devotion have resulted in the development of the TF product line, which operates under the concept Nature in the service of beauty.
